

1

Introduction

University of Dayton Publishing invites you join its exciting new teacher training program, Intro ELT: PreK-3 (Introduction to English Language Teaching: Pre-Kindergarten to 3rd grade).*

INTRO
ELT: PreK-3

2

What's the program about?

The Intro ELT: PreK-3 program is a series of six sequential courses on basic ELT topics, for the teaching of English to preschool and lower primary children (up to 3rd grade). The topics of the courses are:

1. Introduction to Teaching English to Young Learners
2. Young Learner Classroom Management
3. Using Reading Texts in the Young Learner English Classroom
4. English Language Presentation and Practice
5. Using Songs and Games in the Classroom
6. Projects and Evaluation in the Class

These courses are completely online, self-study, in English and with an estimated duration of 5 hours each.

This information is also available at: www.e-udp.com/IEPK3

3

What are the characteristics and advantages of the program?

- You will learn about and/or review basic English Language Teaching (ELT) principles and methodology.
- You will be guided to link the courses' content with your own teaching experience, profile and context.
- You will find complementary activities to download and complete as you review course materials.
- You will be able to learn at your own pace and review course resources as many times as you wish.
- You will answer interactive exercises and receive immediate feedback.
- You will have access to easy-to-follow tutorials and one-on-one tech support.

4

What do I need to participate?

- Be a teacher of English in any grade between first of preschool and third of primary
- Access to the Internet (preferably via a computer)
- An e-mail account
- Availability to connect and personal commitment

